1952 Batting Statistics

The Dodgers led the league in each of the following vital departments for the fourth consecutive season: runs scored, home runs, and total bases. For the seventh consecutive year the Dodgers led in stolen bases. Reese was the base stealing champion for the first time. Robinson led the club in hitting for the fourth successive season, and finished fourth best in the league.

1952 Fielding Averages

The Dodgers equalled the National League record for team fielding percentage, established by St. Louis in 1944, and set a new league record for fewest errors in a season. Jackie Robinson became the first second baseman to lead the league in double plays for four consecutive seasons, and Bill Cox established a new percentage record for Brooklyn third basemen.

"Prospects Not On Roster"

GILLIAM, JAMES "JUNIOR" — Picked by baseball men as the player who will succeed Jackie Robinson at second base for the Dodgers . . . A switch-hitter, he was purchased from the Baltimore Elite Giants in the same deal that brought Joe Black to the Brooklyn organization at the end of the 1950 season . . . Named International League MVP and all star second baseman last year . . . also played 36 games in outfield . . . Batted .301 in 151 games, and had 112 RBI's . . . Born at Nashville, Tenn., on October 17, 1928, is 5'10½", weights 175 . . . No. 35.

LEE, RONALD L. — A crafty left hander who was a brilliant relief pitcher for Montreal in 1950, compiling a 14-4 record and a 2.20 ERA . . . Has done most of his pitching recently in Japan with the Army . . . Born April 25, 1929 at San Diego, California, 5'11", 170 lbs. . . . Joined Brooklyn organization with Santa Barbara in 1947, and since 1948 has never had ERA above 2.53 . . . Throws left, bats right . . . No. 47.

MARASCO, VICTOR E. — This chunky native of Los Angeles has been in the Army two years after a four year career in the Dodger farm system . . . Now 24 years old, he had an outstanding season at Pueblo in 1949, hitting .330 and knocking in 121 runs . . . He batted .281 in 1950 at Mobile . . . A powerful right-handed batting and throwing outfielder, he managed the Fort Ord, California Army team last season . . . Jim Baxes played under him there . . . 5'7" tall and weighs 155 . . . No. 12.

MILLIKEN, ROBERT POGLE — A big right hander with a great fast ball, Milliken looms as one of the finest young prospects in the Brooklyn organization . . . Began professional career with Nashua in 1947, pitched at Danville and Fort Worth in '48 and had a good year at Porth Worth in '49, — 12W - L5 and a 2.65 ERA . . . Impressed at Vero Beach in Spring of '50, but injured arm right after joining Montreal and was out for the season . . . While in Army, pitched with Curt Simmons at Camp Atterbery, Ind., and reports arm is sound again . . . Born at Majorsville, W. Va. August 25, 1925 . . . Six footer and weighs 190 . . . No. 55.

MICKENS, GLENN R. — A 22-year-old right hander with limited experience, but rated a fine prospect . . . Entered O.B. with Billings of Class C Pioneer League in 1950 and jumped to Fort Worth the following year . . . Pitched in only 7 games before going into Army in May . . . Born in Wilmar, Cal. on July 26, 1930, 6 feet tall and weighs 170 . . . Bats and throws right, has good stuff and plenty of poise . . . Will wear uniform number (No. 55) originally assigned Joe Black at Vero Beach last Spring.

PODRES, JOHN — The young left hander who impressed so at Vero Beach last Spring . . . Had 21-3 record at Hazard in 1951, first year in organized baseball . . . Came close to making Dodger varsity last year, then hurt his back after opening season with Montreal . . . Finished with 5-5 record in 88 innings . . . Spent past Winter coming to Brooklyn for treatments on injured back . . . Has everything it takes to be a big-leaguer — fast ball, great curve, poise and control . . . Born at Witherbee, N. Y., Sept. 30, 1932, stands one inch short of six feet, weighs 170 . . . No. 40.

The Manager . . .

Rchomding from the debacle of 1931, CHARLES WALTER (CHUCK) DRESSEN last year aarrived a few more blows early in the sesson (the loss of Newcombe, Fucillo's alump and the ineffectiveneas of pitchers Brances, Lahine and Kine), and eame on to caphure the National League Reg by 4½ games.

The crippled pitching staff hept him in continnd hot water in 1952. His master atroke was the invitation to eight tookie pitchers to report early to Vero Beach last Airring in an effort to come up with a replaccment for Newcombe. He fomd Bieck, Rotherford and Wade among this group. Wade won 11 games through July, holding the teara up there through the early momihs; Rotherford took some big late aesson games and Bleck wae the hie-saver all year.

Dressen bas a conetihution to withetand advecaity. Five-foot-six, biue eyes, browa hair, Irish-German, phyaically rugged, he played pro iootball with the Decatur (Ill.) Sealeys, daddy-bears to the Chicago Bears.

He played 15 years in organized ball, 13 c6 them as a third baseman. Witb the Rede seven years, he wouad up with the Giante in the 1933 World Series, where he was more famous for thinking then for his playing: (Tipped Bill Terry off to pley the infield haek for alow-iooted Cliff Bolton, Senator catcher, who then obligingly hit into a double play).

Chuck followed MacPhail ioto and out of three jobs: 1) Cincinnati, where he helped build Red team that won 1939-40 pennants after he left, 2) Brookiyn, where he coached from 1930 through 1946 for petiod beween November 1942 and July 1943, and 3) Yankees, where he coscbed for Bucky Hartie 1947-46, Mach underrated reason for success of all three vaatures.

At Oakland in Pacific Coast League (where he followed Casey Stengel in 1949) he became a top front-office man, making moves which won 1950 flag for Oaks.

Born, September 20, 1898, Deaatur, Ill.
Haight, 5:6, Waight, 185. Blue eyes and brown hair, Threw and batted righthanded.
Nationelity—Irieb-Germen.
